

Dewi Sant

Dewi was born in Pembrokeshire in 512. His mother's name was Non and his father was Sant ap Caredig.

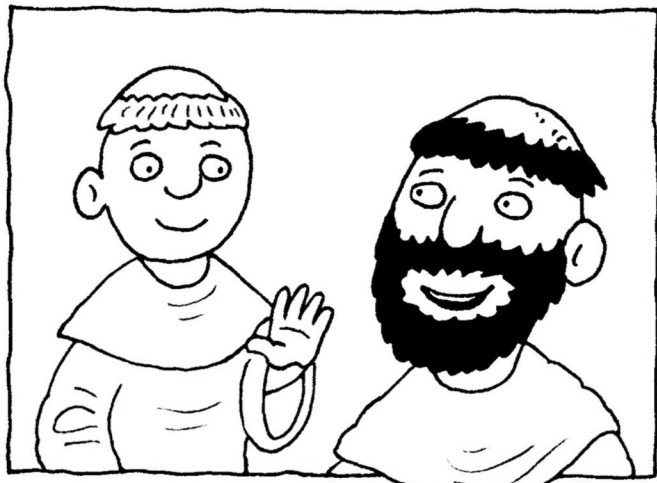

"Those things, which you have both learned and received, and heard, and seen in me, do; and the God of peace shall be with you."

Philippians 4:9

Dewi learned how to follow Jesus from a monk called Peulin.

Dewi became a monk too, and he ate only bread and herbs, and drank only water.

Peulin was going blind, so Dewi prayed and asked God to help Peulin see again.

Peulin could see again! A miracle!

Dewi travelled all over Wales sharing the good news about Jesus.

Once, in Llanddewibrefi...

...Dewi was speaking to the people, but not everybody could hear him, or see him.

Dewi put a handkerchief under his feet, and the ground rose beneath him, so that everyone could see him and hear him.

A white dove came and perched on his shoulder. Another miracle!

Dewi and his friends built an abbey at Glyn Rhosyn, and Ty Ddewi cathedral was later built nearby.

Just before he died, on March 1st 589, Dewi told the people:

"Be joyful, keep the faith, and do the little things that you have heard and seen me do."

