

Philip baptised a man from Ethiopia

Print Free: www.lambsongs.co.nz

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

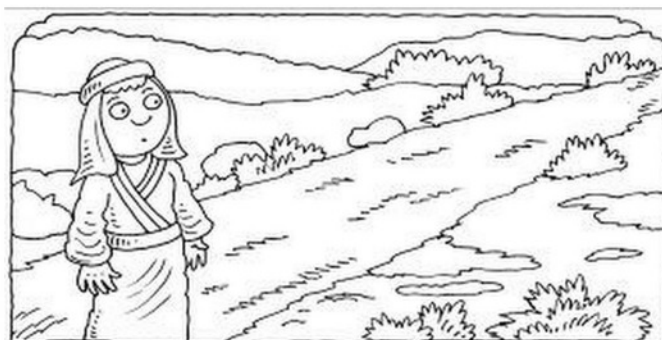

It doesn't matter what country you come from, or how long you have believed that Jesus is God's Son, you can get baptized.

Philip and some of Jesus' disciples, were telling people in the small towns of Samaria about Jesus Christ, God's son and many people believed the good news.

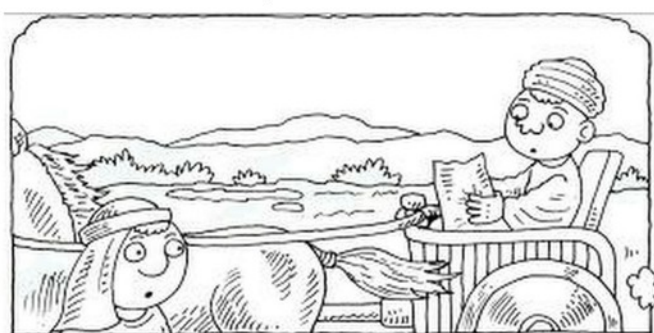

Then God sent an angel to tell Philip "Go this way into the desert. God has something for you to do." Philip listened and obeyed.

He wondered why God had sent him to such a lonely place, but he knew that God's Spirit was with him. God wanted Philip to tell someone about Jesus.

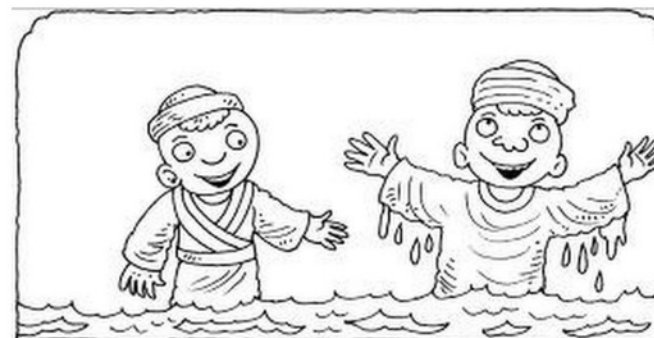

Soon a very important man, from the country of Ethiopia, came past in his chariot. He was the boss of the Queen of Ethiopia's treasure and he was reading the words of Isaiah, from the Bible

Philip asked the man if he understood the words he was reading. "I can't understand them," he answered, "and I have no one to teach me."

So Philip explained to the man from Ethiopia how God had written long ago about his Son and that anyone who believes in Jesus and was baptized, would become a child of God.

"I want to get baptized right now," the Ethiopian man said. "If you truly believe you can," Philip replied. "I do believe Jesus is the Son of God," the man from Ethiopia declared, so Philip baptized him in the river.