

Ideas for praying creatively

Plasticine prayers

Give each person some plasticine or soft modelling material (even clay) and encourage them to make models of their family, their house, a friend or their school. They then use these to pray for the people they represent. You might suggest that they lift them up to Father God as they pray or have a large cross where the models can be placed symbolically.

Picture: Ksenia Pixellesse on Unsplash